One sunny afternoon, Kate was walking home from school. She always enjoyed the sound of birds and the fresh air. When she arrived at her house, she put her hand into her pocket to take out the house key. But it wasn't there! She felt panicked. She searched her pockets and her school bag for the key, but she couldn't find it.

Kate stopped at the park on her way home to sit under her favorite tree. "I lost the key there," she thought. She quickly ran back to the park. When she got to the tree, she looked around but didn't see the key. A little boy was playing with his dog near the tree. Kate asked him, "Have you seen a key around here?" The boy said, "No, but my dog can help you to find the key. He's really good at finding things!"

The dog sniffed around the tree and began wagging its tail. Suddenly, it stopped and started digging at the bottom of the tree. Kate was surprised. The dog found both her key and an old coin! The boy also looked surprised. "This coin looks really old. I think it is valuable!" he said.

Kate said, "Thank you!" to the boy and his dog for their help. She returned home and showed the coin to her parents. They took it to a museum. An expert told them it was from over 200 years ago. The family decided to give the coin to the museum, and Kate became famous for finding a piece of history because of a lost key.
